WE ARE

The European External Action Service (EEAS) is the European Union’s diplomatic service. Since 2011, the EEAS carries out the EU’s Common Foreign and Security Policy (CFSP) to promote peace, prosperity, security, and the interests of the EU across the globe. It brings together European civil servants, diplomats from EU Member States, national experts and local staff worldwide.

The EEAS supports the High Representative in the exercise of her mandate to steer the Union’s CFSP, including the Common Security and Defence Policy (CSDP), to represent the EU on issues relating to the CFSP and to chair the Foreign Affairs Council. It also supports her as Vice-President of the Commission with regard to her responsibilities within the Commission, including the coordination of other aspects of the EU’s external action. The EEAS works in close cooperation with the EU Member States, the General Secretariat of the Council, the services of the Commission and the Secretariat General of the European Parliament.

The EEAS Headquarters are in Brussels. It is also responsible for the management of the network of 145 Union Delegations and Offices worldwide. The Legal Department also represents the High Representative and the EEAS in judicial proceedings before the Court of Justice of the European Union and coordinates the representation of the Union and of the EEAS before other jurisdictions as required.

The Division SG.LD.2 covers all legal questions relating, inter alia, to the EEAS administrative activities and the implementation of the EU Staff Regulations (hereafter, the “SR”) and Conditions of Employment of Other Servants (hereafter, the “CEOS”), the EU Financial Regulation (hereinafter, the “FR”) and other administrative areas including
