

Vacancy notice 2026- 157 HQ (AD) –Head of Division POL.ASIAPAC.4 (China, Taiwan, Mongolia)

EEAS Vacancy Notice –
Head of Division China, Hong Kong, Macao, Taiwan and Mongolia

Type of post "Head of Unit or equivalent"

EU Officials (AD 9 – AD 14) – Candidates from the Member States¹ (AD 12)

We are:

The European External Action Service (EEAS) supports the High Representative in the exercise of her mandate to conduct and implement an effective and coherent EU Common Foreign and Security Policy (CFSP), to represent the EU and to chair the Foreign Affairs Council.

It also supports the High Representative in her capacity as Vice-President of the Commission with regard to her responsibilities within the Commission in the external relations field, including the coordination of other aspects of the EU's external action. The EEAS works in close cooperation with the EU Member States as well as with the General Secretariat of the Council, the services of the Commission and the Secretariat General of the European Parliament.

The 'China Division' (POL.ASIAPAC.4) plays a central role in supporting the HR/VP, EEAS, the Commission, the Council and other EU institutions and bodies to shape and implement an EU wide, coherent approach towards China, as well as the Hong Kong and Macao Special Administrative Regions, Taiwan and Mongolia. Its coverage extends beyond China not only by definition (Mongolia, Taiwan) but also as the challenges and opportunities presented by China for the EU involve constant interaction with partners across the region, and worldwide. The Division should serve as the headquarters hub for the monitoring and interpreting of China's domestic and foreign policies, in order to feed the sound development of the EU's own policy, in a vast range of areas.

The Division contributes to EU internal decision-making by servicing EEAS, Commission and Council processes (including EUCO, FAC, COREPER, COASI and PSC). The Division helps steer internal coordination through the regular meetings of the China Country Team, occasional higher-level meetings of the Strategy Group, and through managing the inter-institutional China Clearing House (in coordination with the Commission's Secretariat General), ensuring a consistent approach and joined-up EU action. The Division supports senior official interactions with official representatives, and prepares and follows up on bilateral meetings, from leaders' level to Ministerial and senior official levels.

It also engages constantly with the wider diplomatic community, think tanks and civil society organisations. In this regard, colleagues participate in many external facing events, presenting the EU's approach to the countries the Division is responsible for.

In order to maintain all of these functions, the Head of Division must be an astute political operator, an active networker, a resilient interlocutor for Chinese and other counterparts, and an effective delegator of tasks and manager of a team which operates in a high-pressure environment.

We propose:

The post of Head of Division China, Hong Kong, Macao, Taiwan and Mongolia - POL.ASIAPAC.4

Under the administrative authority of the Managing-Director and the Deputy Managing Director for ASIA and PACIFIC, the Head of Division exercises the overall management responsibility for the activities of the Division.

¹ Temporary Agents from national diplomatic services of the Member States to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies will also be reclassified to this grade if selected for the post.

The main responsibilities are as follows:

- manage, organise and coordinate the activities of the Division and its staff members;
- monitor and ensure the timely implementation of goals and tasks assigned to the Division, including under tight schedule;
- motivate, coach and lead a multinational expert team, ensure efficient staff and personnel administration of the Division;
- ensure the sound development of EEAS and EU policies and the coordination and management of the EEAS' overall contribution towards coherent EU policies on China and the other countries/territories covered by the Division
- maintain an active, agile and collaborative network with key teams in the Commission (specific DGs and the Secretariat General), with EU Delegations, and with colleagues in the services of the Council and Parliament, whose attention is frequently drawn to the matters falling under the Division's responsibility.
- Represent the Division, and frequently the Asia-Pacific Department, and EEAS, in private and public events, working closely with think tanks, academia, business associations to enhance policy making;
- Work closely with other diplomatic partners, across the world, in pursuit of an effective EU policy towards China.
